Agenda Item 3

12-07-2019

This is a totally residential area the pub in question is surrounded by residential properties, the noise would be excessive especially during the working week, the clientele I believe are trading drugs in the road outside, my car has been vandalised twice whilst parked on the same side of the road as the pub, the excess vehicles raking particularly after the thirty pm on a Thursday through to Sunday evening makes it very difficult for residents who have paid for a permit to find suitable parking. The pub is also just up the road from the Islamic college so I think increasing drinking is insensitive. I don't believe there is a requirement from residents for these excess hours extending beyond normal licensing hours
