Subject: Objection to Kilburn High Road adult gaming centre

Hello,

I would like to object in the strongest possible terms to the proposed adult gaming centre at the corner of Kilburn Road and Glengall Road.

The area already has multiple gaming, betting and casino facilities, so to introduce another seems not only unnecessary but a basic dereliction of the Council's duty and responsibilities to its residents.

The hugely negative impact of gaming and gambling on individuals as well as the destructive influence on their families is well documented and as such this seems exploitative and ill-informed - and simply wrong.

In addition, the area nearby - including Glengall Passage - is already a magnet for daytime drinkers, a situation which this proposed gaming centre will certainly exacerbate.

I can see no merit in this proposition - and only profoundly adverse and damaging consequences for the area and the day-to-day lives of its residents.

Please feel free to call me on [REDACTED] if you wish to discuss these objections in more detail.

Yours faithfully,
