NB: Please ensure you have read the accompanying EA guidance and instructions in full.

SECTION A – INITIAL SCREENING

1. Please provide a description of the policy, proposal, change or initiative, and a summary its objectives and the intended results.

This EIA is in relation to the procurement of a contract Provision of statutory Children Looked After Reviews - Independent Reviewing Officer and annual Foster Carer reviews.

The current provision is a mixture of both in-house consisting of 2 in-house IROs and commissioned services from Aidhour Limited to support the Local Authority deliver the statutory responsibilities as required under the Children Act 1989, the Children and Young Persons Act 2008 and the Care Planning, Placement and Case Review Regulations (2010) and Guidance April 2011. The Council's intention is to recruit two further in-house IROs in house and tender for a service to deliver the remaining reviews.

The National Independent Reviewing Officer (IRO) Handbook sets out the expectations of the role. The Independent Reviewing Officer's (IRO) primary function is to provide expert and independent quality assurance on the Local Authority's care planning and reviewing process for children and young people looked after (CLA) by Brent. This duty is executed through highlighting when positive outcomes are achieved for the CLA and challenging drift or delay in a child's care plan.

The Fostering Services (England) Regulations 2011 outline how fostering service providers must review the approval of each foster parent annually. The Foster Carer Reviewing Officer

(FCRO) will conduct reviews with foster carers once a year, with a view to ascertaining the suitability of the Foster Carer and their capacity of demonstrating competence in meeting the needs of looked after children, in line with the Fostering Regulations and Fostering national minimum standards.
