RESPONSIBILITY FOR FUNCTIONS

1. General

1.1 The Authority's functions may lawfully be exercised by:-

- Full Council
- The Leader (although for the time being the Leader will not exercise executive functions alone)
- The Executive
- Individual members of the Executive (although for the time being individual members will not be exercising functions)
- Committees and sub committees of the Council or the Executive
- Joint committees
- Officers

Other persons so authorised where the law permits

1.2 A description of the decision making structure and the management structure of the Council and the Service Areas within which various functions are generally dealt with is included in Part 1 of this Constitution.

1.3 The Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 give effect to section 13 of the Local Government Act 2000 by specifying which functions are not to be the responsibility of the Executive, which functions may (but need not) be the responsibility of the Executive ('Local Choice Functions') and which functions are to some extent the responsibility of the Executive. All other functions not so specified are to be the responsibility of the Executive. These Regulations have been amended from time to time and those amendments are reflected in this Constitution.

1.4 This Part of the Constitution and the Tables set out below describe whether the various functions of the Authority are 'Council functions' or 'Executive functions' and whether, in either case, those functions have been delegated by the Council in the case of Council functions, or the Leader in the case of executive functions, to a committee, sub-committee, joint committee, officer or other person or body.

1.5 Table 1 sets out the functions, listed in Schedule 1 to the Regulations (as amended), which cannot be the responsibility of the Executive and specifies which part of the Authority will be responsible for them. It also specifies to whom, if anyone, those functions have been delegated. For instance, in the case of development control, all functions are delegated to the ~~Director of Environment and Culture~~ Director of Regeneration and Major Projects and/or the ~~Head of Planning~~ Assistant Director of Planning and Development except those which are specified as being the responsibility of the Planning Committee.

1.6 Similarly, Table 2 sets out the Local Choice Functions which may or may not be the responsibility of the Executive and specifies which part of the Authority will be responsible for them. It also specifies to whom, if anyone, those functions have been delegated by the Council in the case of Council functions, or the Leader in the case of Executive functions. For instance, functions under local Acts of Parliament are included here and so may lawfully be exercised either by the Council or Executive. Table 2 specifies whether, in Brent, they will be Executive or Council functions.

- 1.7 Table 3 sets out the functions which are not to be the sole responsibility of the Executive. So far as those functions are to be executive functions, the Leader has agreed to arrange for these functions to be carried out by the Executive..The Table describes the plans, policies and strategies, which form the Authority's Policy Framework and specifies what role the Executive will play in relation to those plans, policies and strategies. Essentially, the Executive will develop and consult on the plans, policies and strategies listed and will then refer them to Full Council for consideration and approval. If approved, the Executive will then be responsible for implementing them.
- 1.8 Table 4 sets out the functions to be exercised by the Highways Committee which is a committee of the Executive appointed by the Leader.
- 1.9 Part 5 of the Constitution describes the membership and terms of reference for the Council committees and sub-committees. These are:-
- Standards Committee
 - Standards (Initial Assessment) Sub-Committee

- 1.11 Table 5 sets out the 'proper officers' designated for the purposes of certain statutory provisions. Any reference in any Act or any part of this Constitution to 'the proper officer' will be a reference to the person so specified in the Table but if none is specified the Chief Executive or a person nominated by him or her for the purpose. Any other function not otherwise specified in the Tables or elsewhere in this Constitution is the responsibility of the Executive, unless specifically precluded by law from so being, in which case it shall be the responsibility of the General Purposes Committee (unless specifically reserved to Full Council in which case it shall be exercised by Full Council).
- 1.12 All functions shall be exercised in accordance with this Constitution including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and this Part 4 and Part 5.
