3. Detail

Requirements of the Localism Act 2012

3.1. The Localism Act 2011 sections 38-43 requires local authorities in England and Wales to publish a pay policy statement for each financial year beginning with 2012-13. This provision of the Act does not apply to staff in local authority maintained schools.

- 3.2. The Act sets out the matters which must be included in an authority's pay policy statement as follows:
 - the remuneration of its "chief officers";
 - the remuneration of its "lowest-paid employees" (together with the definition of "lowest paid employees" adopted by that authority for the purposes of the statement, and the reasons for adopting that definition); and
 - the relationship between the remuneration of its chief officers and the remuneration of its employees who are not chief officers.
- 3.3. For the purposes of the statement the Act defines who is included under the term "chief officer". It includes the Head of Paid Services (Chief Executive, the Monitoring Officer, the statutory chief officers (directors) as well as non-statutory chief officers and deputy chief officers (managers who report directly to a chief officer).
- 3.4. Remuneration is also defined widely and includes not just basic pay/salary but also any bonuses, charges, fees e.g. election fees or allowances, benefits in kind, increases enhancements of pension entitlements and termination/severance payments. Remuneration in relation to employees who are not chief officers is also similarly widely defined.
- 3.5. The statement must set out the authority's policy on a number of specific aspects of chief officer remuneration:
 - the level and elements of remuneration for each chief officer;
 - the remuneration of chief officers on recruitment;
 - increases and additions to remuneration for each chief officer;
 - the use of performance related pay for chief officers;
 - the use of bonuses for chief officers;
 - the approach to final payments to chief officers when they leave the authority; and
 - the publication of and access to information relating to remuneration of chief officers.
- 3.6. The policy statement must be published on the authority's website and in any other manner the authority considers appropriate. There is no requirement to include specific numerical data on pay and reward within the statement. However, it is necessary to consider how the information in the statement fits in relation to the information authorities are already required to publish.
