What is your account?

I was in SALS bar. Inside the bar. I got punched in the nose. I don't remember having an argument in the bar. We got kicked out by the owners. I thought it was wood. But it was tile. Soon as I throw on floor it break. I had it in my hand when officers came. I had it with me for self protection. I found it outside round the corner by the bar where we were drinking. Then police arrived.

Were you out with NAME REDACTED? Yes he might have been punched as well. Friends for 6 to 8 years. Saturday night drinks.

What happened when you left the bar? I went out the bar and went to a car park. There was a load of tiles in a big bunch of rubbish on the floor. I picked a piece up. I kept it with me. I walked through the car park. I was waiting for the guys that hit ,e/

Intention? I was going to hit them. Payback. I was afraid as well.

Why did you drop the tile? Because I knew you guys were coming.

ERO - DS LEWSLEY

I have reviewed the evidence in this case and have discussed this matter with the OIC. I have made a decision as above and have recorded below the key factors that have been considered in reaching this decision:

1. Both suspects have been the victim of an assault or otherwise involved in an altercation in which they received injuries.
2. Suspect have waited outside venue for a considerable period of time, a minimum of 20 minutes whereby there are no other people present. No other parties are involved in this matter and there is no altercation.
3. Suspects both leave the venue and travel into a public car park where they arm themselves with long lengths of tile which they proceed to walk back towards the venue they were originally at.
4. Suspects call the police to claim they have been the victims of assault.
5. NAME REDACTED specifically states he armed himself as he was going to hit one of those who assaulted him if they came outside. NAME REDACTED has stated he armed himself in self defence while he waited for the police.
6. There is no instance arming here. There is no immediate threat, the suspects move themselves from the scene and have a long period of time in which to leave. As such this defence does not apply.

07/05/2017 14:54

PC 238125 946QK K RUDGE

7. Exceptional circumstances apply as below:

- No likelihood of custody if convicted in Magistrates Court.
- Lack of any relevant antecedents.
- No harm caused.
- No likelihood of any harm.
- Weapon is a tile which has been picked up from street and is not something that has been brought to the venue.

8. Caution authorised by Inspector Clarke due to specified offence.
