The decision is extremely urgent and even 5 clear days' notice of the decision cannot be given	<input type="checkbox"/>
The decision will be made by members at a meeting and 28 clear days' notice that the proposed decision may be discussed in private cannot be given	<input type="checkbox"/>

b. Please explain why the appropriate notice was not given.

Quintain need to continue with design development for Zone C works including the steps to be in a position to award a contract in September 2018 for the manufacture of the precast steps for installation in December 2019/January 2020. This being the only window available for the installation prior to Euro 2020. In light of recent news that Wembley Stadium is proposed to transfer from Football Association ownership to a private individual/company, Cabinet is being asked to re-examine the funding decision made in July 2017 to contribute funding for Olympic Way Improvements to enable the Council to advise Quintain accordingly.

c. Please explain why the decision cannot be deferred to a later date.

The contract will not be awarded in time for the only window available in Dec. 2019/Jan. 2020 for the on-site installation of the steps. The Pedway removal will not take place.
