> There are near by betting shops where you can clearly smell drugs being smoked and sold on our streets eg braemar ave etc we do not need any other more liquor licences in the area for these type of people to use ,also kids walking home from nearby school don't need to be subjected to drunks coming out of fudam . The approval of a license will also encourage unsocial behaviour, continued urinating on the street , fighting on the street , we have already been suffering from a magnitude of unsocial behaviour for year don't need anymore . There are flats and residential properties nearby also which would not be happy with the nuisance coursed . From my understanding of fudams owners they don't have a great record with law and trading standards and have been refused a liquor licence in the past , so for all these reasons a license should not be granted!
