3. Matters Arising

4. Deputations

5. Petitions

The following petition has been verified by Democratic Services and contains in excess of 50 signatures:-

- Petition relating to proposal for passing bays in Staverton Road

This petition is from residents requesting that a proposed trial of passing places in Staverton Road be abandoned.

This petition states that:

“The residents of Staverton Road, NW2 request TfL, London Buses and Brent to abandon any proposal to introduce bus passing bays on the residential street. This would have serious and permanent implications for the character and layout of the road, for the value of our property, a reduction in parking space and would negatively affect those residents living opposite the bays.”

A report relating to this petition appears at Item 8 of this agenda.

- Petition requesting a consultation be undertaken concerning the proposed Controlled Parking Zone Scheme for Chambers Lane

This petition from residents of Chambers Lane and surrounding roads states that:

“I, the undersigned, wish the Council to consult me with regards to controlled parking zones in my area.”

- Petition requesting traffic management improvements following temporary closure of Windermere Avenue

This petition from residents of Windermere Avenue and surrounding roads states that:

“We the undersigned request that Brent Council take urgent action to address the traffic problems that are a direct result of the closure of Windermere Avenue.”

- Petition against change of operational hours of Controlled Parking Zone scheme for Chestnut Avenue, Chestnut Court, Chestnut Grove and Perkin Close

This petition states that:

“We the undersigned residents of Chestnut Avenue, Chestnut Court, Chestnut Grove and Perkin Close wish to formally lodge our strong objections to any proposed change in the existing hours of the Controlled Parking Zone for reasons stated in our previous petition to you, dated 6th October 2005. We wish the hours of operation in our streets to remain unchanged – the same as those of the neighbouring areas close to Sudbury Town, as listed in your letter of 6th September 2005.”
