Vamanaganেশa Sriharan : VS

On 12th October 2018 I visited the venue with PC Gary Norton. It was lunchtime and the premises were closed to the public, there was no licensable activity being conducted. We met with Mr Vamanaganেশa Sriharan. I saw several posters around the bar area advertising bottles of spirits for sale.

VS Comment : Posters are displayed, just a display only, bottles are not sold and there is no physical evidence, will instruct the Operators to amend the price list.

This breaches condition 28: No bottles of spirits shall be sold at anytime. All spirits shall be sold in standard measure. This condition is in Annex 3, attached to the premises licence by the licensing authority after a hearing.

I asked to see the ID scanner in line with condition 23. Mr Vamanaganেশa Sriharan produced the scanner, it was covered in a film of dust and looked as though it had not been used for sometime, however the premises opens to the public every night.

VS Comment : Venue is open to public mostly Thursday to Sunday, Few days prior to the officer's visit we had a water leak where we store/keep the scanner, and we had to open up the ceiling / plasterboard to fix the problem, and I mention to this to the officer and I invited her to speak to my staff about the leak repair – hence the dust on the scanner

I asked Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan to operate the scanner, he was able to switch it on. It took a long time to initialize, and then run through the diagnostics. Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan said this was normal however a message came on the screen stating ' This account is inactive for the following reason: ACCOUNT SUSPENDED. See the attached photo of the screen. I asked who held the account and Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan said it was Frank who paid for the Scanner.

VS Comment : I never mentioned any names here, I said Crystal Management doesn't pay for the subscription and it is paid by the current Operators : I never mentioned any persons names.

I asked Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan if he used the scanner and he said no the security operated the scanner.

VS Comment : I said in my absence Door Staff or some time Floor Staff will do the scanning

I asked to see the door supervisor log (condition 3) Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan said he did not have that, it was also kept by Frank. I asked to see the incident book (condition 35) this could not be produced.

VS Comment : Door Supervisor Log(s) and Incident Log Book are kept on the premises all time, but never requested on the day of the visit – I am disputing this claim.

I then asked to view the CCTV footage for 22nd September 2018 (condition 1). Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran could not find the CCTV hard drive.

In the small room next to the bar there was a black metal cabinet that was locked.

Apparently the hard drive was in that cabinet but Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan had no idea where or who (apart from Frank) might have the key.

VS Comment : I accept that I did not have the keys for the CCTV hard drive at that moment in time and I told the visiting officer that if the keys are not in the office then PLH Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran may have taken it : but I never mention any other persons names who may or may not have keys.

Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan alleged Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran would have a key but he was in Germany.

VS Comment : I accept this claim

We left the premises on the understanding Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran would contact me upon his return from Germany the following day so I could view the CCTV footage and other items. Mr Vamanaganেশha Sriharan said he could get the footage downloaded however I wanted to view it at source to ensure its' integrity and accuracy.

VS Comment : I accept this above statement, and I told the officer that “give me some time” to download the footage, and I will provide the footage (whatever) requested also I am well aware that if I meddle / interfere with CCTV recording - that is against the law and I could be charged.

*Please see/refer Ruby Lounge Licence – Condition (29)

How can Vamanaganesha Sriharan check the CCTV system as part of his daily supervision of the premise if he has no access to the hard drive. Vamanaganesha Sriharan has no control of the ID scanner contract or operation.

VS Comment : I accept this, but CCTV can be viewed online via apps by PLH

I explained if licensable activities were to take place and the conditions were not fulfilled this would be breaches of section 136 Licensing Act 2003.

VS Comment : I accept this, it was briefed

I spoke to Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran the following day, he had missed his flight home from Germany. I was aware he had been to Germany for a funeral, so as not to disturb him an such a time I asked him to contact me at a suitable time for him.

VS Comment : I accept this claim, but I was under the impression that the visiting officer would contact Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran or me and put in a written request for the CCTV recordings & other information.

Mr Kuppusamy Kirupakaran has not contacted me since that phone call.

It is the opinion of Police that the venue can not operate correctly under the rigorous conditions attached to the existing premises licence. Extending the operating hours of the venue and permitting entry up until 0200hour whilst the designated premises supervisor has such little control of the venue is a recipe for disaster and undermines the licensing objectives.

Police request these TEN's be rejected.

VS Final Comment I accept that the CCTV & Scanning data wasn't provided on the time of visit, but I offered the officer that I will download the data if time was given : I think it's a reasonable ask, also there are some claims I totally deny all clearly documented above.

The request to use the TEN application during this festive period to prove the Authorities that Ruby Lounge can operate without any incident and fulfilling all licencing conditions / stipulations.
