2.	Application by the Metropolitan Police for an expedited review of the premises licence for 'The Plough' (253 Ealing Road, Wembley, HA0 1ET) pursuant to the Licensing Act 2003	Having considered whether it was necessary to take interim steps under section 53B of the Licensing Act 2003 pending the hearing of the application by the Metropolitan Police for an Expedited Review of the Premises Licence for 'The Plough' (253 Ealing Road, Wembley, HA0 1ET) ("the premises") pursuant to the provisions of the Licensing Act 2003 the Sub-Committee resolved that the premises licence be suspended as an interim step under section 53B of the Licensing Act 2003:- The Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Sub-Committee (B) accepted the evidence submitted by the police concerning crime and disorder associated with the premises, including incidents of violent assaults inside and within the vicinity of the premises. It was felt that there not sufficient evidence of changes to the management of the premises to address crime and disorder and that the only appropriate course of action in all of the circumstances of the case was a suspension of the premises licence as an interim step on the grounds of crime and disorder. The Sub-Committee also suggested that the premises licence holder, the police and Health Safety and Licensing exchange and share information in respect of the running of the premises.
