4. Report of the Monitoring Officer

4a. Proposed Work Updates

Nathan Smith provided an update to the proposed works since the last meeting. The project had been completed subject to minor works and photos were shown at the meeting. It was noted that works for a new amenity area close to the water next to the bridge had been completed as part of the s.106 planning obligation.

Barratt London, West Hendon Partnership Board and the Canal River Trust (CRT) had consulted on the design and proposed works of the four amenity areas and tree reduction projects.

Logs from the tree reduction project have been used to create an insect habitat in agreement with Natural England and coir rolls would be installed in line with guidance from the CRT. A comprehensive litter pick of the area had also been completed.

A member of the Welsh Harp Conservation Group raised an issue regarding the stretch of willows which acted as a screen to reduce visual disturbance for the water birds on the reservoir and enquired about the height of reeds to be planted. Nathan Smith confirmed that input and full agreement of relevant parties had been presented to the Committee before implementation. The height of the reeds was to be confirmed. Natural England confirmed that there were sufficient screens and protection in the area.

A new knee height timber fence was to be replaced between the water and the amenity area which would be managed by First Port Limited, the estate manager of West Hendon along with the litter bins. It was noted that rough sleepers could be a major contributor to rubbish being dumped in the Welsh Harp. Residents were disputing the increased service charges imposed for littering and fly tipping.

Councillor Mashari commended volunteers for their efforts in rubbish clearance from the SSSI and surrounding areas and recommended that threatening letters from First Port Management be stopped. Councillor Richman offered to work with residents and volunteers to come up with a suitable resolution with First Port in relation to the unwarranted charges.

Members suggested that the log pile stacked up near the water should be left at a safe distance to prevent them from falling in the water.

5. Actions for Current Issues and Future Vision

Matthew Gunyon provided an update on the current situation and future works to be carried out at the reservoir following discussions with Brent, the Canal River Trust, London Wildlife Trust, Thames 21, and the Greater London Authority (GLA). Mr Gunyon thanked volunteers for the thousands of bags of litter that had been collected. The Environment Agency (EA) reported that litter clearance was carried out on a weekly basis.

MP Matthew Offord contacted the Department for Environment Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) on the issue of trash screens and received a response which Mr Gunyon would forward to the Committee post meeting.

It was noted that there had been no clear strategic plan for match funding or capital revenue to improve the area. Habitat management issues particularly on the Barnet side needed improvement. Invasion species and Japanese Knotweed were treated on a cyclical basis, but clear tracking was needed to reduce rising issues.

It was noted that a strategic and joined up approach on improvement to the Welsh Harp was needed. Therefore, development of a Welsh Harp Vision would include a review of the management plan and identification of key work streams such as unified signage for the whole site, target dredging and access points to the Welsh Harp that could be easily identified as the SSSI area. A contractor specialist would be procured to help develop the master plan to improve work streams. In addition to the s.106 money that was available, funding from the GLA of £10,000 would be put towards the project combined with another £10,000 from Barnet.

The Chairman raised the issue of de-silting to ensure prevention of solidification and whether it had been taken into consideration. It was noted that although dredging of the whole reservoir was needed, the lack of funding meant that targeted dredging would be carried out as an interim measure. Innovative approaches were being explored to reduce organic matter within the sediments and sectioned off areas could potentially be drained to allow targeted dredges. A catchment wide approach was being done to look at preventative measures upstream of siltation.

Members recommended trash traps to be placed up river to collect silt and mud and the possibility of implementing another trash trap near the Brent Cross. Trash traps could also be modified to catch a wider area of rubbish flowing through especially during heavy rainfall.

Councillor Clarke informed the committee that the above suggestions were discussed by the Brent Cross team to include in their plan which was no longer funded by the shopping centre. Reporting from the local consultation exercise would be an open and transparent process and a vision would be developed in consideration of input from all parties.

Matthew Gunyon went through the plan on upcoming works in further detail. Some of the activities included:

- Supporting community clean-up: Materials and equipment would be provided through coordinated efforts with Brent Council and the CRT.
- Installation of additional safety signage: To ensure a balance between welcoming and educational signs.
- Installation of Recycling bins: Two bins were recently installed.
- Manage rough sleeping: An ongoing issue tackled by the rough sleeper team in Barnet to ensure rubbish was collected when possible and suitable accommodation provided.
- Manage invasive plant species: Cyclical treatment of Japanese Knotweed through stem injection or spraying. Additional patches were treated when identified and were being tracked. Volunteers were encouraged to assist with the Himalayan Balsam.
- Improvements projects for the reservoir: Consultation on dredging the water bed, improving access and view points were part of the long-term plan.
- Waste Management Plan working with EA: Forming localised waste lines with local environment agency, local businesses, and communities to address littering and fly tipping using a catchment wide approach.

6. London Borough of Brent Welsh Harp Management Plan

Leslie Williams informed the committee that Public Spaces Protection Orders (PSPOs) were in place to tackle issues including gatherings that would pose health and safety hazards. Brent Council had limited personnel to cover park enforcement but worked closely with services to tackle issues. Members were encouraged to raise any issues with the council directly, so that resources could be deployed accordingly. Police Officers were suggested to be involved where possible.

7. London Borough of Barnet Welsh Harp Management Plan

This item was covered under item 5.

8. Welsh Harp Waste Crisis

Ben Watt, musician, writer, and bird watcher presented a piece in relation to the crisis of the Welsh Harp. Mr Watt had been campaigning to improve conditions at the harp. The lowering of water levels in January revealed unsightly rubbish and a deeply rooted crisis.

All land owners including Barnet and Brent Councils, the Canal River Trust, the Environment Agency and Natural England were facing a number of rising issues and other factors including pollution. Rubbish from the in flowing rivers, Dollis Brook and Silk Streams, were having a negative impact on water quality, animal and plant species. Intervention was considered inadequate as seen in photos taken. It was noted that the management of the wetlands was part of CRT's statutory duty.

The decades of silt build up was toxic and whilst key parts of the reservoir had been dredged, selected parts of the reservoir needed to be dredged to protect natural habitats which have been said to be off limits.

The EA said that they cleared the traps weekly which did not seem to be the case, according to members of the committee. Without proper tools and manpower, a large island of silt and branches were left in the trapped filling the trap again within a week. Surface oil collection and petrol inceptors in the drain needed to be investigated further as well as the debris left down stream.

The odour of chemical residue had continued to linger in affected areas of the woodlands because of the paint factory fire in 2018. It had been revealed that Barnet Council had no bio diversity plan, ecologist intervention or park enforcement for the onshore area.

The lack of accurate mapping meant that there was no systematic management of invasive species like giant Knotweed, Himalayan Balsam, Crack Willow or other SSSI plant species.

There was a central environmental crisis with staggering amounts of discarded plastic, toxic silt, water airborne contaminants, gunk waste and inaccurate mapping of species which were all detrimental to the SSSI and which had not been addressed appropriately.

Mr Watt recommended that the CRT reassess their current Welsh Harp plan and devise a long term intensive clean up programme for both offshore and shore line plastic pollution.

Selected dredging around the wetlands was required to make use of responsible habitat management, mend broken breeding rafts and work with the EA to improve water quality.

A transcript of the waste crisis report and photos could be found via the following link:
<http://benwatt.com/play/article/the-slow-death-of-welsh-harp-crisis-update>

Councillor Clarke pointed out that Barnet Council needed to declare a climate emergency and imminent change was needed.

Andrew Smith from Natural England intended to respond to the distressing issues raised at the meeting with appropriate resources.

The dates of the next meetings have been scheduled for 28 July 2021 and 17 November 2021.

9. Any Other Business

10. Any Other Items that the Chairman Decides are Urgent

Welsh Harp Joint Consultative Committee

Organisations may apply to the Committee to be represented. Applications should be forwarded in writing to the Secretary who will arrange for the request to be reported to the Committee for decision.

Please note that when considering an application, the committee must be satisfied that the organisation has sufficient interest in the Welsh Harp to justify its nomination.

Organisation (name and type)

SILVER JUBILEE PARK RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION

Description of the organisation:

SJPRA is an active association whose members are actively involved in a number of local issues, in particular those associated with the well-being of the “Welsh Harp”.

Interest in the Welsh Harp:

Being a residents Association where the majority of its members are living very close to the Welsh Harp, using it regularly, love very much, we are keen to both improve and protect this special ‘oasis’. We have a very good track record of challenging proposals which could potentially be damaging to the area i.e. 10 years ago we protested against an application alongside other local organisations, which successfully defeated the proposal.

More recently, we opposed a housing proposal on the Barnet side which we successfully involved the London Mayor, which once again resulted in the proposal being defeated.

Name and position of person making the application on behalf of the organisation.

1.0 Purpose of the Report

1.1 This report presents progress on the Brent Reservoir / Welsh Harp Management Plan since the last meeting of the Committee and during the 2020/21 year to date. The Management Plan is jointly managed by the three main land-holding organisations: Brent Council, the London Borough of Barnet, and the Canal & River Trust.

2.0 Recommendation(s)

2.1 Members are asked to note the Report.

3.0 Detail

3.1 The current version of the Welsh Harp / Brent Reservoir Management Plan, (dated 15 March 2016) is available on the Brent Council website at:

<https://www.brent.gov.uk/services-for-residents/culture-leisure-and-parks/parks-and-allotments/park-finder/welsh-harp-reservoir/>

- 3.2 Other partner organisations will update the Committee on the Welsh Harp 'Vision' project that involves also Barnet Council, the Canal and River Trust; the London Wildlife Trust, Greater London Authority and Thames 21.
- 3.3 The Welsh Harp / Brent Reservoir Management Plan includes an Action Plan that lists current year progress and actions that may require a longer time-frame and/or for the resources to be identified to undertake the action. For this committee the Action Plan is updated as Appendix A. The 'Progress' column indicates current progress. For Brent Council, additional notes are provided in the following paragraphs:

Marshland work

- 3.4 Marshland conservation work continued until December 2020 and was then postponed due to the Covid situation. The work is due to recommence after the bird breeding season, in September 2021. The work is mainly within the Canal and River Trust's land on the marshland edge of the reservoir and also involves Brent Council. The work has been conducted by volunteers of the Welsh Harp Sailing Association. The focus will be on the margins of the southern shore of the reservoir (Neasden Recreation Ground). The Canal and River Trust, and the Welsh Harp Sailing Association have obtained consent from Natural England for the programme of works.
- 3.5 The work involves the reduction of shade from scrub and from coppiced (previously cut and regrown) trees, to enable the marshland flora to regenerate. A range of trees are retained, particularly less common species locally, for example most of the Alder, Silver Birch, Apples, clumps of Osier, regenerating Elms and large Willows. The work is in the marshland and on paths alongside the marshland, which often coincide with a belt of acid grassland. The works aim to improve:
- Habitat and wildlife: The marshland and the marshland flora are valuable for wildlife. The marshland is typically 5-20 metres wide.
 - Water wind-sports: Trees on the edge of the reservoir create a wind shadow that can extend over the reservoir and which reduces the wind for water sports.
 - Landscape and amenity: The growth of the trees can reduce the view of the reservoir and the views across the reservoir.

The marshland edge on the southern side of the reservoir includes some intricate variations in vegetation and the works will consider the detail. In particular, the method of working to re-open views and the stacking of the cut material will be considered.

Litter

- 3.6 Brent Council have continued to work with partner organisations on clearing some of the long-term accumulations of litter and rubbish.

Healthy Walks programme

- 3.7 The walking programme has continued with walkers following social distancing guidelines. Details may change depending upon the Covid regulations and guidance current at the time of the walk: See:

<https://www.brent.gov.uk/services-for-residents/culture-leisure-and-parks/sports-and-wellbeing/sport-activity-finder/healthy-walks-in-brent-welsh-harp-nature-walk/>

3.8 Oak Processionary Moth

- 3.8 Oak Processionary Moth has been reported at the Welsh Harp Open Space during the spring / early summer; and following reports during recent years. The hairs of the caterpillar can cause an irritation to the skin and to the respiratory tract. The Forestry Commission and others have been attempting to control the spread of the species since it was introduced to the UK in about 2005. More information is on the Forestry Commission website, including guidance on reporting of the caterpillars:

<https://www.forestryresearch.gov.uk/tools-and-resources/fthr/pest-and-disease-resources/oak-processionary-moth-thaumetopoea-processionea/>

4.0 Financial Implications

- 4.1 The Brent Reservoir / Welsh Harp Management Plan is primarily a land-use document to guide land managers and others in the maintenance, management and legislative issues affecting the land management of the Brent Reservoir and associated land. The Brent Reservoir / Welsh Harp Management Plan also has a forward planning role, particularly in identifying the needs of land management over timeframes into the future.
- 4.2 The actions in the accompanying Action Plan (Appendix A) are achievable over varying time-frames, though many are not affordable within existing budgets in the short term. More details of works are included in Appendix A. Where those works are not currently achievable, the Action Plan highlights key issues. Works are only undertaken when approved by the service responsible for delivering the works within existing approved budgets.
- 4.3 As is being reported to the Committee, the main land-holding organisations at the Welsh Harp and some other organisations are currently working on a 'vision' exercise, which will include a review of possible sources of funding and income for those works currently not affordable

5.0 Legal Implications

- 5.1 Brent Reservoir / Welsh Harp is a designated 'Site of Special Scientific Interest' ('SSSI'). Section 28E of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 as amended by the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 ('CROW') and the Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006 (NERC) sets out the duties in relation to SSSIs. Land owners or occupiers, and also public bodies, are required to give notice to and consult with Natural England where they wish to carry out, or cause or permit to be carried out any operation in an area of land that is of special interest by reason of any of its flora, fauna, or geological or physiographical features (this requirement applies to operations within a SSSI, and to operations outside the SSSI that may affect the features of interest). Natural England will issue consent, which may have conditions or refuse consent. It is a criminal offence to carry out a listed operation without Natural England's consent or to ignore any conditions of a consent which may result in an unlimited fine and a restoration order. CROW (and section 28G of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981) places a duty on all public bodies to take reasonable steps, consistent with the proper exercise of the authority's functions, to further the conservation and enhancement of a SSSI. When advice is obtained from Natural England prior to carrying out the works, an explanation of how the Council has taken into account any advice Natural England has given should be provided –

The Council must be able to show that it considered alternatives that could reduce the impact on the SSSI and the methods being used are those that cause as little damage as practicable to the land:-

The Council should demonstrate how it has assessed differing interests (including the special interests of the SSSI) before deciding to go ahead with the works.

- 5.2 It is good practice for landowners or occupiers to produce Management Plans for the SSSI, which when approved by Natural England, enable the carrying out of the works specified in the Management Plan. This can reduce the administrative work inherent in obtaining consent for individual items of management work.
- 5.3 The Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006 requires that all public authorities in England and Wales, when exercising their statutory functions, must have regard to the conservation of biodiversity, so far as is consistent with the proper exercise of their functions.
- 5.4 Section 28Q of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 requires the owner of land included in a SSSI to inform Natural England within 28 days of any changes in ownership or occupation of the site, including leases, easements and rights.

6.0 Equality Implications

- 6.1 Decision makers must have due regard to the public sector equality duty in making their decisions. The public sector equality duty is set out at section 149 of the Equality Act 2010 and is as follows:

A public authority must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:

- (a) eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act;
- (b) advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;
- (c) foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

In terms of advancing equality of opportunity, this means to:

- (i) remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic;

- (ii) take steps to meet the needs of persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of persons who do not share it;
- (iii) encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity in which participation by such persons is disproportionately low.

In terms of

- (a) Tackling prejudice, and
- (b) Promoting understanding,

The relevant protected characteristics are:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race,
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage and Civil partnership

6.2 At this stage, no potential adverse impact arising from the recommendations in this report has been identified. However, the equalities implications identified in the Equality Analysis will continue to be considered and assessed as further data / information is obtained or becomes available during the implementation process.

7.0 Consultation with Ward Members and Stakeholders

7.1 None specific.

8.0 Human Resources/Property Implications (if appropriate)

8.1 None specific.
