Harlesden	Resident and Community provider spoke about the Roundwood Community Centre and the services it provides for the youth and community. She then went on to speak about Brent being identified as a priority area for movement, health and well by London Sport and London Sport. This is currently in development stage, and she will be reaching out to individuals and organisations in the community to scope this		Community Engagement Team to reach out to the individual and signpost her to departments and organisations that can assist with this.  Team also to explore if Roundwood centre can give an update in the May forum	Community Engagement	Mar 2025	May 2025
	Resident raised the issue that Harlesden Library is very noisy on Mondays and Wednesdays		Community Engagement Team to escalate this to both Libraries and the Hub team	Libraries and Brent Hubs

	when the Hub centres are being held through a combination of service users and staff. They suggested having the hub relocated to the New Horizons Centre on Robsons Avenue		and try and obtain a response for the resident by the next forum or directly.
	Resident raised the point if practitioners in mental health settings can explore using health language when people present around with issues of financial crisis and anxiety.		Community Engagement Team to pass point on to the Brent Well-Being Outreach Service from Park Royal Centre for Mental Health who will raise this in their team meeting	Brent Well-Being Outreach Service	Mar 2025	May 2025
	Resident spoke about the good work of Brent health matters but wanted to raise the issue she has with monitoring her blood pressure at Harlesden Library. She is unable to have a seat that allows her to have her heart above the machine and requested an adjustable chair.		Brent Health Matters Team to look into this and make necessary changes to the seating at Harlesden Library	Brent Health Matters	Mar 2025	May 2025
