	A resident expressed concern over the alarming number of waste-related incidents – 296 in total. Fly tipping, in particular, is becoming increasingly prevalent, with bulky items such as mattresses being dumped. He noted a possible link between these incidents and Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMOs) and thus asked if there is a plan to		The Neighbourhood Manager for the Harlesden locality, and the Corporate Director (CD) for Neighbourhoods and Regeneration responded, but the CD will elaborate further in due course. 	A resident living on Connaught Road raised several issues, including street lighting and safety. For example, they reported that the area is poorly lit – this contributes to a sense of insecurity, particularly because of individuals engaging in substance misuse nearby. This has made the resident fearful of returning home when it's dark.		The Corporate Director (CD) for Neighbourhoods and Regeneration said that these concerns would be escalated to the Highways & Parking Team.	Highways & Parking Team	October 2025	March 2026
	The Connaught Road resident also spoke about the frequent presence of temporary traffic lights, particularly on Harlesden High Street, and that the end date for the roadworks (Feb 2026) is prolonged – especially as more time (approx. 30 minutes) needs to		The Corporate Director (CD) for Neighbourhoods and Regeneration said that these concerns would be escalated to the Highways & Parking Team.
