To whom it may concern,

this letter to vouch for the shop

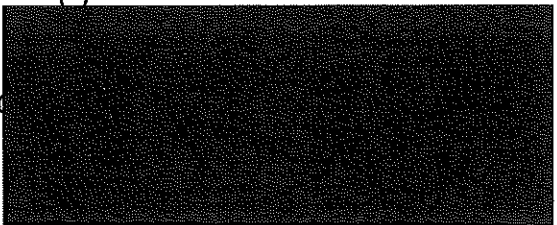

Jubilee Foods Wine
20 station Parade
Wilkesden Green.

which is important to our community and vital to many of us who rely on it for our everyday items.

All the person working in this shop are all extremely kind and helpful and in no way encourage gangs to loiter or create problems in the area. they themselves suffer to have them hanging around their shop.

they all work very hard,
deliver if in need and open late which is beneficial to many people who work late themselves.

Thank you for your consideration

to whom it may concern,

I've been coming to Jubilee Food & Wine for the past 10 months now, on a daily basis.

Between all the Food & Wine shops in Willesden, I choose this one because the staff is always so kind and available.

I get the impression that, whenever I step into this place, they're always very polite not just to me but to everyone.

Each and every customer is considered part of the community.

I'm very happy with the way this place is managed.

To whom it may concern,

I'm writing this letter as a character reference to my local shop owners and extremely kind individuals. I'm willing to write this letter and answer any questions you may have. It's very rare you find comfort in your own community but the individuals that exist just round the corner from me who I now like to call my friends have made me feel this way no questions asked. I'm from Cornwall and when I moved to London I slightly felt alone but sometimes you meet people that make you realise everything will be OK the kids that hang out on the corner have no right to have an opinion based on their own insecurities

Any questions please email or call me [REDACTED]

Kind regards

To whom it may concern

I have been neighbour to Jubilee food and wine for 12 years. They are my local corner store and I have been shopping there ever since I moved into the area. I more friendly, helpful and respectful group of people you will not find. They take in parcels for me if I'm not home even though they do not need to. They offer friendly advise and will help in any way possible if it is in there power. I would recommend them to any body and would vouch for them.

If you would like to get in contact with me concerning any issues you may have with them please feel free to contact me on

I am writing this letter to confirm that I am regular customer of jubilee food and wine 20, station parade NW24NH since last 2 years. Every time I come in the shop the staff who works there is very welcoming. They are very good people and very helpful, every time I go there, I start talking and jokes about. During lockdown they help lots of people by serving free breads and can food and help community a lot.

I wish them well.

Thank you

To whom may concern,

I have been a resident at Willesden Green for well over 10 years and have been shopping at the Jubilee food and wine ever since we moved in. They welcomed us warmly and have always been kind and friendly. They are a great part of our community and always have been ever since I moved to Willesden Green. Living above the shop itself I have never experienced any problems or complaints from them whatsoever and I will help them in any way possible, as they always help me.

To Whom it may concern,

I have been living in Willesden green my entire life.

Shops and business have come and gone, looking to make their money and leave with no real substance or goals of reaching the small community of people in Willesden green.

Jubilee Food and Wine have never wronged anyone, to the point I have had no money to pay for groceries and had to ask for credit and with no hesitation they would allow me to pay at a later date.

Helping one another out as a community and they do that, day in day out.

I've watched them talk to the younger generation about how to stay out of trouble, asking the youths what they think needs to be done to help around the area. All round good genuine people/business.

Speaking to them I have heard the situation and I can see where maybe this has been seen in a misleading way.

Whatever has been said about them is false I have seen if 1st hand how they treat the people in our community and what's community without love and unity?

I hope they can remain where they are doing what they do best. They have literally become and welcomed those who live in the area like family.

Again I hope this situation can be sorted and we can resume life as we know.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir/Madame,

I am writing in regards to Jubilee Food and Wine.

I have been a customer for many years, and have always been greeted with consistent, great customer service. The family ran business take time to get to know their regular customers, both old and young.

I have witnessed numerous occasions where they have had conversations with the local youth, trying to encourage them to make positive changes. Their community spirit is admirable.

I truly believe London is beginning to lack in community spirit and shops like Jubilee food and wine are a big help to keep that alive.

I truly hope that this shop and those who run it can regain normality and continue to be an excellent contribution to the community.

Yours Sincerely

To whom it may concern

Sir,

I am regular customer of the shop next to Willesden green station jubilee food and wine. I am coming here from 7 years. Since I am coming here the people who work here are genuine and honest, I want to tell you one incident last year I forget my wallet in the shop, and I had £300 in my wallet I was little drunk I forget it in the shop after I paid my bill and next day the guy there told me that I forget my wallet and when I check my money was in there. Our society needs more community shops like this. Sometimes I took food items on credit during covid time because it was hard time for all of us, they always help me. As a member of public, I rate jubilee food and wine very highly and recommend everyone in my neighbourhood.

If you have any question regarding that please do get in contact. My name is [REDACTED] and I live at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and my phone number is [REDACTED]

Thank you!

Re: Jubilee Food & Wine
20 Station Parade
Willesden Green
London

I would like to confirm that me and my family have been visiting the above convenience store for over five years on a regular basis.

I have found the management and staff extremely courteous and helpful and have never had any cause for complaint.

They provide excellent service and keep open from early in the morning till late at night thus assisting us in our needs.

To my knowledge I have never witnessed any trouble etc in or outside the store.

I wish them every success with the services they are providing to the local community.
