

Prevention of Public Nuisance: I would like to add to my first objection that at present the weather has kept the public nuisance inside. As soon as the weather improves this will, no doubt, take the nuisance outside the premises and naturally worsen the whole situation