Dear Sirs,

As discussed with my colleague on the phone on the 8th August, midnight is the latest I would consider. Please let me know your decision as this will soon be set for a Licensing hearing.

Any problems please call me.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Adolphus I am writing the e-mail in regarding the variation of the licence. We applied to open till 3 am. We did not receive any objections from the local businesses or from the local residents and the general public. We have contacted yourself on a numerous occasions and we have discussed that there is a anti social problem in the area and that was the reason the extension was not being granted.

We have decided if we could trade till 1 am that would be sufficient for us as it is very difficult to do business as there is a lot of competition in the local area and we need to be open for a few hours extra.

Yours Sincerely

Mr AMJAD ALI & MR KAMRAN ALI
