

29-04-26

This is very close to two primary schools and at least 1 food bank. The area already has other gambling facilities which often attract disorderly behaviour from customers at night, though also during daylight. There are so many children in this part of Kilburn (because of the schools); we really don't want additional gambling hubs to populate their imagination and be a part of their culture.