

06-04-26

I strongly object to the adult gaming centre opening. The AGC would be next to an area with a high percentage of vulnerable adults near by. It will also increase anti-social behaviour, something the area already struggles with. It is a terrible idea overall and I can't believe Brent Council would allow yet another gambling centre to open in Willesden Green.