

07-04-2026

I fear another adult gambling shop on the street will increase day drinking within the area, and increase crime rates, with Walm Lane having high crime rates as it is. It also makes me worried for the safety of children and does not promote Willesden Green as a safe family area to live