

07-04-2026

I object to yet another gambling establishment in the area which is already overrun with antisocial behaviour and these places cause significant harm to the community. This is a family area and we should be encouraging more family friendly activities and to keep the high street a community place, with thriving shops and cafes that offer safe and welcoming environments for all.