

08-04-2026

We do not need anymore gambling sites in our high street. There is already one just a stones throw away. There are lots of undesirable's on our streets already, this will make it worse. My children feel unsafe waking home from the tube station after school, this would make them feel even more intimidated and unsafe.