

09-04-2026

Another gambling shop on our high street has no social value and encourages the already significant anti social behaviours we see. Another congregation point, others already often attract people with substance uses to congregate. This is detrimental to passers by and the community.