

11-04-2026

Horrific idea- the area is already deprived enough without another betting shop to further exploit vulnerable people and make the high street even more anti social than it is. There are too many of these terrible shops on the high street as it is. The fact this is even being proposed is a laughable. This cannot go ahead. Open up a proper business that will actually improve the area