

11-04-2026

Willesden already has numerous gambling establishments and has no need of more. These places cause great hardship to families with a member or members who struggle with gambling problems. The council should also consider the possible rise in antisocial behaviour and violent crime.