

19/04/2026

We simply do not need yet another gambling establishment in this area. Ask Brent Social Services about the damage to lives and relationships brought about by such places being so frequent on London High Streets. And note how the developers choose poorer areas where people can least afford to lose money. And the whole aim is to make customers lose money.