

25-04-26

I object to the proposed adult gaming centre on the grounds that gambling can be a source of crime and disorder and such a late night venue may lead to antisocial behaviour. These casinos are a blight on the community and increase social harm and prey on those already struggling with the cost of living. Vulnerable people will be at risk of exploitation from this proposed gambling place.