

26-04-26

I am concerned that opening a gambling shop in this area could increase the risk of gambling-related harm among vulnerable persons, including those experiencing financial hardship or mental health difficulties. I am also concerned that the location may make gambling more accessible to young people and other vulnerable residents.