

26-04-26

The application should not be granted as children and other vulnerable persons passing through this busy commercial area should be protected from being exploited by the temptation of gambling. Also the existence of a gambling centre can encourage crime and other anti social behaviour