

26-04-26

How can it be possible to justify the presence of another gaming centre in Willesden Green? This is an area with significant deprivation and vulnerable people, and this seems yet more opportunity to exploit them. There are multiple local schools, and the high Street is an area with lots of minors passing through and visiting other businesses (cafes etc); another gaming centre is yet more exposure to marketing and potentially addictive behaviours. I cannot object strongly enough!