

14-05-26

Proximity to vulnerable populations, near children and residential areas, impoverished area increase with no need to push people further into debt. The building should be used for development of the area.