10-09-26

As a resident of Colindale I object to the proposed changes. The increased potential for antisocial behaviour and criminal activity is too high a risk. The loud music and incidents of disorder are already upsetting local people and this will only increase in the future. It also makes people feel unsafe in the vicinity of the bar.