Dear Sir

Police objection to the application to grant a personal licence to Mr Ali Reza FAIZOLLAHI

I certify that I have considered the application shown above and I wish to make further representations that the likely effect of the grant of the application is detrimental to the Crime and Disorder Licensing Objective for the reasons indicated below.

Officer: Nicola McDonald

Licensing Constable PC157QK

An officer of the Metropolitan Police, in whose area the premises are situated, who is authorised for the purposes of exercising its statutory function as a 'Responsible Authority' under the Licensing Act 2003.

The application has been made for a personal licence under section 117 of the Act.

Police are formally objecting to this application.

The Police objections are concerned with the prevention of crime and disorder.

On 2nd July 2014 at Central London Magistrates Court Mr Ali Reza FAIZOLLAHI was found guilty of a relevant offence under the Licensing Act 2003. The offence was alcohol related. Mr Ali Reza FAIZOLLAHI was fined a substantial amount and also given a period of disqualification from driving. This disqualification period does not expire until 1st August 2015. Under the reforms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 by the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012, this offence will not be considered as spent until this disqualification period is complete.

Selling alcohol is something that should be taken seriously and conducted by a responsible fit and proper person. In these exceptional circumstances it would not uphold the licensing objectives to allow this applicant to hold a personal licence at this time.

Yours sincerely

Nicola McDonald
PC 157QK Licensing Constable
