VIW called police to report an incident that took [place yesterday at approximately 1830 hours. VIW states that she was driving along EAST LANE, WEMBLEY o/s Moonbay bar & Restaurant with her son, when a large group of Indian males moved out into the road blocking her path and causing her to stop her vehicle. VIW believes that the males had all been drinking in the moonbay bar and restaurant and had been watching the cricket match between INDIA and PAKISTAN. VIW states that as the males surrounded the vehicle one male stood at the front of the car and shouted "You pakis! We won, we won!" whilst taking photographs of VIW and her son. VIW's son wound down his window to tell the male to move at which point he shouted it again and threw a glass of what is believed to be alcohol into the vehicle. VIW was then able to drive away from the scene. VIW was extremely shaken by the incident.

Medical aid was not requested at the time and was not required.

Inspector Paul COATES made aware of this incident.

PRIMARY INVESTIGATION DETAILS : 2 Scene
This incident took place in the street outside the moonbay bar and restaurant on EAST LANE, WEMBLEY.

VIW has already cleaned the car and thrown away the glass. VIW states that she still has to get the vehicle interior professionally cleaned as the car still smells strongly of alcohol.

I have spoken to a staff member at Moonbay. They think the CCTV footage of the date in question is not likely on the system due to technical issues with it all for the last few weeks.

I have informed the VIW1 of the lack of LA and Moonbay CCTV coverage. I have informed her to call police if she sees that suspects again.

Suitable to close due to lack of evidence.
