On Friday 30th October 2015 I was on duty and working with a number of plain clothes police cadets, and uniformed officers. I was coordinating a test purchasing exercise. This exercise takes the form of police cadets acting as customers, entering off licence premises to select and purchase alcohol, whilst being under the legal age. The premises are normally chosen as a result of complaints received at the police station. At approximately 13:00 this day, we attended the address of 216 Ealing Road Wembley HA0 a premises called Sidneys.

A test purchase was carried out using the police cadets and the cadet was able to purchase 2 bottles of Smirnoff Ice from the store. The specific cadet purchasing the alcohol was Cadet Patel He was accompanied by PC Breakwell From information I then received from the witnessing adult, PC Breakwell, I returned to the store whereupon the witnessing adult pointed out to me the person who had sold the drink to the cadet. I, identified myself, told the seller why I was there, and cautioned him. I established the name as being Jivan Ramgi I then completed a questionnaire contemporaneously as part of the investigation into whether offences under the Licensing Act 2003 had been committed. I produce the record of investigation as Exhibit PSR/1 Mr Ramgi was issued with a fixed Penalty notice. Number 0018036280476618 the alcohol was seized and booked in the Book 66 at Wembley.
