3.0 Detail

3.1 On 31 August 2018 the Care Quality Commission published a report following its inspection of services provided by London North West Healthcare NHS Trust. The overall rating for the Trust was requires improvement.

3.2 In response, the Community and Wellbeing Scrutiny Committee decided it would like the Trust to discuss with the committee the overall rating for the Trust and the findings of the inspection report by the CQC. A special committee meeting was organised for 13 December 2018 to consider the CQC report.

3.3 The report to committee by the Trust setting out the CQC inspection outcomes, action being undertaken and next steps, is set out in Appendix A. The report provided by the Trust also includes details of the pledges and outcomes from the Quality Summit which the Trust organised on 6 November 2018 in response to the CQC report. The Quality Summit document is set out in Appendix B.

3.4 The full inspection report by the Care Quality Commission, which was published on 31 August 2018, is attached as Appendix C. The CQC report details the services at the Trust which were inspected.
