Hi ,

I would like to make a representation in the Jackman's licence review.

I live at [REDACTED] and I have experienced many issues with drunken men causing disturbances in the late night and early morning. Few establishments are open till very late and early in the morning who is continuously selling alcohol.

This has nothing to do with Jackmans shop .Having been a long time customer of Jackmans I can tell you certainty that they have been following the rules and have done many things to reduce the problems in this area .

The public's nuisance I have been experiencing has all taken place outside opening hours of Jackmans therefore I strongly disagree with associating Jackmans to the problem in this area.

I have attached a video with this email of an incident took place outside my video few days ago.

Note : Jackmans has stopping selling alcohol few the last few weeks .This again clearly shows that Jackmans have nothing to do with the problem in the area .

Yours sincerely.
