Dear Ms Figueiredo

I write in the absence of my colleague, Karen Lush, who is on holiday currently, in response to the representations you have made to the Premises Licence application for Nando's at Unit 2, Capitol Way, Colindale.

I also refer to my telephone conversation with Vanesha in your absence.

As explained, the representations made and proposed conditions you have put forward are similar, but not exactly the same, as conditions already agreed with the Police and sent to the licensing authority on 2nd August last.

Obviously, for clarity there should be no conflict between conditions put forward on a Premises Licence and therefore I would be grateful if you could kindly consider the conditions already agreed with the Police as per the first attachment to this email and confirm whether these are sufficient and satisfactory for your purposes.

I have copied Yogini in to this email as suggested by Vanesha in the hope that this can be resolved in your absence on holiday.

Kind regards
Sandra Graham
