Shankar,

Technichally Guinness is a Stout, so I do not believe it would fall within this remit, but we could reword to enable the sale of premium brands which have a higher cost and would not be the ideal choice for a street drinker.

The premises will not sell any beer, lager or cider that exceeds the strength of 6.5% abv or higher unless 3 or more bottles/cans are purchased together. This condition will not apply to stout and Premium brands in bottles.

It's a difficult balance we are trying to maintain in light of the anti-social behaviour issues that this area has suffered. We are aware that it's unfair to be overly restrictive, but we believe that this condition is working. By not attracting the street drinkers in to the shops, it allows the rest of the locals to feel more comfortable going in to buy goods.

Regards

Vicky
